MEMO

To: IRS

From: J. Russell Capps

Subject: Register as a political candidate

When we returned from a vacation trip, I found in my mail, communications from our State Republican Party office, that we, as legislators (or candidates), are required to register with the IRS.

This was a total surprise that I had never heard about. Even more astounding was that it was required to be done by July 31st which had passed several days ago before we returned from vacation.

I am hereby submitting the completed Form # 8871, although I am unclear whether I as an individual legislator and individual candidate I am required to do so.

I trust I have met the requirement (if so) although it is not in by July 31st.

Please advise whether persons in my category are required to file the form, and if so why there was such inadequate notice for such requirement.
